STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1906.

NO. 78.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Ben Helm, Danville, will re-enter the evangelistic field.

Bishop Charles McCabe was stricken with apoplexy in New York.

Rev. J. L. Yandell will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Brooks Brothers closed a revival at the First Christian church, Louisville, which resulted in 311 additions.

Epworth Leaguers, convinced of his innocence, have raised a fund to defend Anton Lambert, to be tried at Laporte, Ind., on a charge of murder. Lambert has a record, but recently professed conversion and denied a confession made at the time of his arrest.

The members of the First Baptist Church have determined to build a $7,000 parsonage. The matter was brought up before the congregation on last Sunday morning and $5,700 was raised there and then, which bespeaks for that church a beautiful parsonage.—News.

Rev. L. J. Reynolds, one of the best known men in the Christian church in this section, after a life spent in the service of the Master, has decided to retire from active work, and this week made his last trip in his official capacity to this county. For many years he has had charge of several churches in this county, and is regarded with feelings of the deepest love and respect by his devoted parishioners.—Richmond Register.

The cost of collecting, forwarding and managing mission money is as follows among the various denominations: United Presbyterians, 4 per cent.; Northern Methodists, 6 per cent.; Southern Methodists, 6 per cent.; Southern Baptists, 6 per cent.; Northern Presbyterians, 6 per cent.; Southern Presbyterians, 7 per cent.; Reformed church, 8 per cent.; American Board, 10 per cent.; Episcopalians, 11 per cent.; Northern Baptists, 11 per cent.

KINGSVILLE.

Our clever neighbor, Henry Leach, surprised his friends by getting married last week to Mrs. Lucy Holden.

Mrs. J. W. Acton has been ill but has about recovered. John Burris has returned to his home at Atlanta, accompanied by his lovely wife, who was Miss Annie McKee.

C. J. Jones, Q. & C. superintendent of signals, was here Friday. G. W. Thomas, the Knoxville shoe drummer, was here Thursday. S. M. Owens, of McKinney, was here last week. Dr. B. F. Walter, of Lancaster, was here last week. J. L. Johnson has gone to Hood River, Ore., to spend the holidays with his family. Miss Mary Burton, of Somerset, is visiting her homofolks. Craig Butt and wife, who have been living in Somerset, have moved back to Kingsville. Virgil Bastin and wife and Mrs. George Rigney spent a few days in Cincinnati.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

"We're goin' ter have int'restin' services up to the church to-day," said the first farmer during a Kansas drought; "the parson's goin' ter pray for rain."

"So?" grunted the other. "Quite a crowd o' ye goin', ain't that?"

"Yeh. We've got a deal o' faith in our minister—"

"So? I ain't seen none o' ye carryin' umbrellas."

Public Speaker Interrupted

Public speakers are frequently interrupted by people coughing. This would not happen if Foley's Honey and Tar were taken, as it cures coughs and colds and prevents pneumonia and consumption. The genuine contains no opiates and is in a yellow package. Penny's Drug Store.

Weary—I hear dat Rhodie was hurt right bad las' week. He jummed off a train goin' 40 miles an hour.

Dusty—Wot did he want to do dat fur?

Weary—Why, he heard de conductor say dat it wuz goin' to Watertown.

HERNE, SWITZERLAND, Dec. 10.—I arrived in this beautiful, rugged, wild, romantic country yesterday and I feel secure with the mailed tyrants of Europe all round me and Mount Symploooming up grand and gloomy in front of me with a fleecy veil upon his stern, savage brow, and around whose sterile summit the bird just below the eagle is now performing its gyrations. How wildly grand! How sublimely beautiful! While here, isolated from the busy marts of men, I want to write two books: "The Law As It Is," and a history of the United States. They will speak a language never breathed by people before! East of me are such cultivated neighbors as Sampson, Morris, Jarvis, Lynn, Matheny, et al, while upon the mountain's lofty summit, Jim Carter, like the eagle, proudly sits in his castle; Hale's Well hard by and the white cone of Sugar Loaf gleams cold and silent through the leafless trees. Here, not annoyed by clients, I can write 10 printed pages a day in each book. What a delightful place! Tall, grand, old-fashioned house, two stories high and an ell running back and two old-fashioned fire places and a good wood fire cheerfully burning! How rudely bright!

You notice I have not paid my taxes yet. I told the deputy that when I was a poor man I could and did pay, but now I owned so much real and personal property, I could not afford to pay. It took too much. But I had two $1,000 horses and a herd of good cattle at the "Barony" and to go out and help himself to such as he liked best. But he said they would have to send some one else. I told him not to be afraid; the Kennedys would treat him nicely if they did not kill him. That is the way we do. That is the way we have always done.

—Richmond Register.

When I get an opportunity to stroll half a day through the woods, amid the Druidical oaks, I shall write again. I am still a Druid. I would, if I could, uproot all the railroads and re-root all the giant oaks that have been felled and go back to pristine glory and beauty.

FONTAINE FOX HOMMELL.

N. B.—Last night I passed all alone in my castle. I read 198 pages yesterday and last night, and though the windows rattled drearily I was not alarmed.

Rev. J. R. Richardson, a highly respected citizen of the Willow Springs section, died Monday. He had been ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fiero, of Catskill, N. Y., parents of Mrs. H. M. Shouse, arrived Monday to spend the winter with their daughter.

Rev. Shouse has resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church here to accept a call to the Fork church, near Marksburg, Garrard county. It is not known who will succeed him here. The church will take steps at once to secure a pastor.

Charley Sluder and a young man by the name of Royland were arrested at Yosemite charged with disturbing religious worship. There is a new religious sect lately sprung up on Knob Lick known as "Fitzwaterites" and they were holding services at M. F. Bastin's when the disturbance occurred.

William Burdin and wife, of Cincinnati, returned home Tuesday after a visit to the latter's sister, Mrs. Cleo McAninch. Miss Lynn Hansford has returned from Liberty and in consequence thereof Diel is wearing a smile as big as a dish-pan. Big hearted Ed Sweeny, the popular grocery drummer, was here this week.

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about 16 years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than 30 years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Stanford Drug Co.

solute John D. Rockefeller's annual income was told to day for the first time authentically. It will be $60,000,000 when the year 1906 closes.

All but one of the prisoners in the Whitesburg jail escaped in some manner which the remaining prisoner declines to tell.

NEWS NOTES.

In Mason county Mrs. High was burned to death in the home of her son, Mason High.

A little daughter of Neely Cook, of Franklin county, fell into an open grate and fatally burned.

A three-year-old daughter of George Gray, of Bath county, stood too near the open grate and was fatally burned. The Nobel peace prize for the current year has been awarded to President Roosevelt by the Norwegian Parliament.

The annual report of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General shows there are 639 rural free delivery routes in Kentucky.

Frank E. Grimes, former treasurer of Kansas, has paid to the State $9,281.25 to settle an alleged shortage in his office for four years prior to 1903.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Angie Hirdsong at Hazelhurst, Miss., returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter and recommended the defendant to the mercy of the court.

Chief Engineer Stevens, who arrived in New York this week, says 17,000 men are at work on the Panama canal. There has not been a death since July and there is very little sickness.

An Omaha, Neb., woman swallowed a chameleon two years ago and died from the effects the other day. Before she was buried a number of little chameleons crawled from her mouth.

Secretary Shaw has announced that he will come to the relief of the money market by depositing $10,000,000 in various banks, and also by purchasing Government bonds to the same amount.

Miss Mollie Bishop was fatally burned in Clark county, her clothing having caught fire from an open grate. In extinguishing the flames Mrs. George Rupard was painfully but not seriously burned.

The American Sugar Refining Company and the Brooklyn Cooperage Company both pleaded guilty to the acceptance of rebates on sugar in the United States Court in New York. Judge Holt fined the Sugar Refining Company $80,000 and the Cooperage Company $70,000.

MIDDLEBURG.

Thomas Gritton has moved to the James Wells farm one mile South of Yosemite.

Rev. J. R. Richardson, a highly respected citizen of the Willow Springs section, died Monday. He had been ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fiero, of Catskill, N. Y., parents of Mrs. H. M. Shouse, arrived Monday to spend the winter with their daughter.

The dispatches say that Chester Gillette spends his time in jail singing and dancing. Admitting, for the sake of argument, that he is not guilty of murder of his sweetheath, he might show enough sorrow over her death to keep him from such performances. A creature so devoid of feeling should, on general principles, be made to dance at the end of a rope or a wire.—Frankfort Journal.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For 20 years W. L. Rawls, of Bell, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surfaces; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25¢ at Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros. 50¢ and $1. Trial bottle free.

Something About Oregon.

SIMNASHO, OREGON, Dec. 6.—Since leaving home last August I have been living in the far West, "Where rolls the Oregon and hears no sound save his own dashing." A little more than 100 years ago Lewis and Clark, led by the Indian woman, Sac-a-jawea, floated down the Columbia and thus laid the foundation for the exploration of the vast territory of the Northwest.

The journey by boat from the Dalles to Portland, Ore., is one never to be forgotten. At every bend in the river the scenery changes like the shifting scenes of a panorama. Along the shore in the lowlands it is summer. The air is heavy with the odor of wild rose and honey suckle. A little further up in the foot-hills there are great pines, hoary with age. When the lowly Nazarine was upon earth these same pines were upon guard as they are to-day.

Looking still further up, one beholds Mt. Hood and Mt. Adams, so tall and snow-clad that they resemble great white clouds reaching up into the heavens. By a mere shifting of the eye, the observer is transported from the land of summer into the regions of perpetual snow.

As our boat passes a mountainous cliff we catch the glint of a wondrous cataract which falls for a distance of 800 feet, four times further than famous Niagara.

But no artist's brush has ever caught the beauty and sublimity of the Columbia, which is larger and more beautiful than a dozen Rhine; neither can such a pen as mine describe it. Oregon is truly a great country, vast and undeveloped. The one great draw-back is the lack of transportation facilities. The entire railroad system of the State is held in the iron grip of Harriman. Until he speaks the word, the State will remain undeveloped.

LUCIEN M. LEWIS.

MORELAND.

Varnon Wilkerson, one of our home boys, now agent for the L. & A. at Heideburg, Ky., surprised his friends by bringing home a beautiful wife, who was a Miss Johnston, of Panola. His many friends here wish them a long and happy life.

Twenty-one hundred dollars' increase in business for the Q. & C. railroad at Moreland in the month of November as compared with the same month of 1905. The increase would have been double that amount if we could have furnished cars. Like other roads we are very scarce of cars. The coal famine was partly relieved last week by receiving two car-loads, which were "licked up" in a few hours.

Mrs. E. K. Shewmaker has returned from Lowry, Va., where she was visiting the family of George Ira Ford. She came very near being killed in an explosion which occurred about 30 minutes before she left the place. Every window in the house she was in was shattered and she was knocked down and covered with the debris. But for the delay of a little boy who was dressing to go with her to the depot, she would have been on a bridge at the time of the explosion and which was torn into kindling wood. She came home without a scratch but very nervous and says, "don't get me any more passes."

Careless contractors caused the explosion by putting down blasts too near where a quantity of dynamite was stored and the whole thing went off, demolishing the depot and everything nearby. Mrs. S. could not ascertain whether or not any one was killed, as she left just after the explosion occurred, but saw a number of men with bloody faces and bleeding wounds.

A Texas Wonder.

There's a hill at Howie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 80 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of Consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured!" Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros. 50¢ and $1. Trial bottle free.

Greenup county went dry in the separate town elections granted by County Judge Harden, who holds the County Unit Law unconstitutional, the town of Greenup went 19 wet. Springville went 14 dry.

Gov. Luke P. Blackburn, whose reputation as a physician and philanthropist is too well known to need further comment, once said "Concentrated Crab Orchard Water is the best aperient known to the medical profession and will cure more diseases than any one remedy I have ever used."
